

Marine Insurance

Is storage at warehouse coverage included in the marine Transit policy?

The marine transit insurance policy does not cover goods temporarily stored during the normal course of transit. If goods are stored outside the normal course of transit i.e. awaiting shipment etc it is always advisable to add coverage for goods stored outside by specifying the time and amount respectively.

Unique solution ID: #1188

Author:

Last update: 1970-01-01 01:00