

General

As not all the companies provide top up cover, is it possible to buy a main policy from one company and buy the top up from some other company? Also, If main policy covers the critical illness, will the top up cover it too?

Yes, you can buy health insurance policy from one company and a top up plan from another. Just make sure that your main policy has sum insured equal to the threshold level of top up plan.

Unique solution ID: #1149

Author:

Last update: 1970-01-01 01:00