

General

I had health insurance 4 years back. How can I renew it?

You can renew your health policy only within 15 days of expiry of the previous policy(as per IRDA regulation).The company may at its discretion allow renewal within a maximum of 60 days from the expiry of the previous policy.

As already four years have passed since the expiry of your policy, you need to purchase a new health insurance plan.

Unique solution ID: #1207

Author:

Last update: 1970-01-01 01:00